PROCEDURES REGARDING THE ANNUAL DISCLOSURE OF SECURITY POLICIES AND CRIME STATISTICS

Annual Security Reports are published for each University of Mary Campus

In compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, the University of Mary publishes an annual security report for its main campus and one for each of its satellite campuses. The Clery Act is a federal law that requires institutions of higher education in the United States to disclose campus security information including crime statistics for the campus and surrounding areas.

In 1986 Jeanne Clery, a college freshman, was murdered and sexually assaulted in her campus residence hall room by another student she didn’t know. Her school hadn’t informed students about the high volume of violent crimes on campus in the three years preceding her murder.

How Crime Statistics are compiled at the University of Mary Fargo Center

The crime statistics in this report are crimes reported to have occurred at the University of Mary Fargo Center and on public property adjacent to the center that have been reported to University officials or to the Fargo Police Department. The crime statistics that are reported from the Grand Forks and Jamestown sites are crimes that have been reported to either University officials or the police department in the respective city and those statistics are also included in this report.

How the Report is Disseminated

The 2013 Security Reports for the University of Mary centers and sites can be located in their entirety on the web at http://www.umary.edu/UM/StudentServices/CampSecurity/securityreports.htm. No later than October 1st of each year, an email notification providing the URL address for this report is sent to all enrolled students, facilitators and staff. Printed copies of the reports are also available upon request at the main office at the University of Mary Fargo Center. New students are notified of the availability of the report during orientation and in prospective student packets.
of information. Employees are provided information about how to access the report with their application materials.

SECURITY POLICIES & PROCEDURES for the University of Mary Fargo Center (Locations in Fargo, Grand Forks and Jamestown)

The University of Mary -- Fargo Center is a non-residential classroom building located in Fargo at 1351 Page Drive in Fargo, ND 58103. The University of Mary owns this building with approximately half the building being used for University of Mary purposes while the remainder of the space is leased to long term non-university tenants. There is no security office or campus police department at the University of Mary Fargo Center nor at either of the other two locations mentioned in this report. The Center is located within the jurisdiction of the Fargo Police Department and the University reserves the right to report security concerns to the police. At the Fargo campus the university maintains a contract with a private security firm (General Security Services Corporation or GSSC) who patrols the building after the close of school business each day (after 10pm) and once each day on the weekends.

There is a Fargo Center location coordinator, administrative personnel and a facility manager that is authorized to receive security reports/concerns from all three of the locations detailed in this report. All of these individuals can be reached Monday – Friday from 8:00am to 5:00pm at 701-232-7088.

The Fargo Center also serves the Grand Forks site which is found in The Southpoint Business Center, 1407 24th Ave S. Grand Forks, ND 58201. This site is a leased space that includes three classrooms and an office and it is located in a multiuse office facility.

The Fargo Center also serves the Jamestown site which is located at St John’s Academy, 215 5th St. SE Jamestown, ND 58401. This space is used by the University of Mary only from 5:30 – 10:00 PM, when the classes are in session (typically Thursday evenings).

How to Report an Emergency

Emergency police, fire and medical services for Fargo are dispatched from combined city-county Law Enforcement agencies. If an emergency arises -- call 911. Access to the University of Mary

The University of Mary Fargo Center opens each day at 8:00 AM and closes at 10:00 PM Monday – Thursday and at 4:30 PM on Fridays. All doors of the Fargo Center are open every evening when there is class in session. After 8:30PM a private security firm (GSSC) ensures that all exterior building doors are locked allowing students and facilitators to exit the building (however entry to the building is blocked). This private security firm (GSSC) also does a complete check of the internal and external areas of the building and grounds between 10:30 – 11:30 PM, Monday – Friday and daily on weekends and holidays.

The Grand Forks site is open for one hour prior to the beginning of class every evening that class is in session and the students have access to the front and back doors. The back door of the facility is locked by the Grand Forks Coordinator at 6:30 PM and the front door automatically locks at 8:00PM. After 8:00PM students and facilitators are able to leave the building but entry is blocked into the building.

The Jamestown site is open for 30 minutes prior to the beginning of each class or by special arrangement. The students and facilitators have access to both the front and back “Activities” door. After 6:30PM all doors are locked by the St. John’s Academy maintenance staff and the facilitator of the class has a key, if an individual needs to gain access to the site. Students and employees are able to exit at any time.

Timely Security Advisories

When University officials have information to indicate there is an ongoing or continuing threat to the safety or security of students and employees at the three sites of the University of Mary Fargo Center, a security advisory will be issued. The advisory will be printed on University letterhead and bear the signature of an authorized Fargo Center employee (see above). The advisories will be posted in visible locations at the sites and distributed by faculty in classes.

Examples of situations that might prompt issuance of a timely security advisory include but are not limited to: a) a situation where there has been an assault or series of assaults at or near the center and there is reason to believe the assaults could continue; and b) a situation where there has been a string of thefts at the Center and there is reason to believe the thefts may continue.
The Importance of Reporting Criminal Activity

Because the University of Mary Fargo Center does not have a security office, students, faculty, staff and guests are strongly encouraged to promptly report all criminal or suspicious activity to both the appropriate Police Department and to University officials. Prompt reporting of criminal activity enables the University and local law enforcement officials to protect the safety of others. No matter how insignificant an incident might seem, the information you provide may be an important clue that may be helpful to the university and/or local law enforcement officials.

The Police Department generally notifies the University when it is investigating an incident that occurred at one of the sites. At the end of each calendar year, the Police Department provides the university with statistical information about crimes reported to them that occurred at or adjacent to, the Fargo Center campus or at either of the other two sites. The information is included in the university’s annual disclosure of crime statistics.

How to Report a Crime to the University

If you are a victim of a crime, or if you feel threatened by suspicious activity, your first priority should be to get to a safe place. If you encounter a crime scene you may be in danger because the perpetrator may still be in close proximity. Don’t enter the crime scene! Instead, go to a safe place and call 911. In addition, a report should be made to the, University of Mary -- Fargo Center Director or Facility Manager at 701-232-7088. All crimes reported to these individuals will be included in the university’s annual crime statistics.

The University’s Response to a Crime

Please note that there are special procedures for responding to a report of a sexual assault. These procedures are presented in a later section of this document. For all other crime reports, the University will respond in the following manner:

1. The first concern of the University is your safety and the safety of the entire University community. If the University perceives there to be an on-going risk to you or others, the University will make an immediate report of the incident to law enforcement officials on its own behalf. Depending on the circumstances, the University will rely on law enforcement officers to determine if it is safe before allowing access to the crime scene.

2. The University will encourage you to report the incident to law enforcement officials if you have not already done so and you will be offered assistance in contacting the appropriate officials. Sometimes members of the community are hesitant to make a report of crime because of the fear of retaliation. The university is committed to doing everything possible to protect those who report a crime from any form of retaliation. If those alleged to have perpetrated the crime are students or employees of the University, this can include an order from the university to avoid all contact with you. In some instances, the University will agree to keep your identity confidential. The University will also assist you in obtaining a legal restraining order if the circumstances warrant it.

3. When you make your report to University officials, you will be asked to provide a written statement of what you know about the incident. You may also be asked to answer questions to clarify information you have provided.

4. All reports of crime received by the University will be investigated. The University reserves the right to enlist the assistance of local law enforcement officials in any investigation involving criminal behavior.

5. When the alleged perpetrators of a reported crime are identified as students, the case will be adjudicated internally in accordance with the University of Mary School of Accelerated and Distance Education Student Handbook/Program Information and the investigation will be the responsibility of the Director of the Center of Accelerated and Distance Education (and/or those appointed by him or her). Students determined to have involvement in criminal activity are subject to disciplinary action whether the incident occurred on- or off-campus. As required by the Clery Act, and as permitted by the Family Education and Privacy Act (FERPA) the University will inform a victim of an alleged crime of violence of the outcome of the student disciplinary proceeding against the accused when the accused has been found to be responsible and exhausted allowable appeals. Such notification will be limited to the following information: the student judiciary final determination with respect to the alleged crime of violence and any sanction that is imposed against the accused. Reporting the outcome of proceeding of non-violent crimes is not permitted under FERPA and will remain confidential.

6. When the alleged perpetrators are employees of the University, internal disciplinary action may be pursued as outlined in employee handbooks. In this case the investigation will be the responsibility of the director of human resources and appropriate supervisors and administrators.

7. Internal judicial or disciplinary measures by the University are not intended to replace or interfere with action in the criminal justice system. Victims of crimes retain the legal right to pursue criminal charges in addition to any internal investigation or proceedings. Criminal investigation by local law enforcement officials, arrest and prosecution can occur independently before, during or after the campus judicial process or employee disciplinary actions. Likewise, the university may pursue its own internal disciplinary measures independent of whether or no criminal charges are filed and/or whether or not they are successfully prosecuted in the criminal justice system.

8. If the information you provide in your report indicates that there is a continuing risk to other members of the community, the University will issue timely security advisories to advise the community of the risk. These advisories will be issued in accordance with procedures outlined in an earlier section of this report.

Voluntary Confidential Reporting

If you are a victim of a crime and you do not want to pursue action within the university’s disciplinary processes or the criminal justice system, you have the option of making a confidential report. When you make a confidential report, the university agrees to keep your identity private but is able to use the information to provide for future safety and security of the community. Reports filed in this manner are relayed to the local Police Department without any identifying information and are include as statistics in the annual security report.

Crime Prevention and Safety Education

The University of Mary Fargo Center includes crime prevention and safety information in its annual security report. Students and staff are encouraged to review it. In addition, brochures with safety information are available in the administrative office.

In North Dakota, it is illegal for anyone under the age of 21 to consume or be in possession of alcohol. It is also illegal for anyone to sell, furnish or provide alcohol to a person under the age of 21. Anyone in violation of these laws is subject to criminal prosecution. The policy regarding the possession, sale or the furnishing of alcohol at the University of Mary and at University of Mary sponsored events is determined by the Board of Trustees and is consistent with all applicable legal statutes. The Board has adopted the following policy regarding alcohol: All

- Possessing and/or consuming alcohol on university property or off-sites or at any university event sponsored for students.
- Being in the presence of alcohol on University property or off-sites and/or at any university sponsored event for students. The exception to this policy would be those official University of Mary appreciation events where the Board has given its authorization for alcohol to be served to friends or benefactors of the university.
- Being intoxicated on University of Mary property, off-sites or at any University of Mary sponsored event.

Policy on Illegal Drugs

However, no hunting of any kind is permitted on university property or satellite locations. In addition, members of the community and visitors are prohibited from having weapons of any kind present or stored on University property or in a vehicle located on University property or off-sites campuses. Among those weapons included in this prohibition are all guns, knives and archery equipment used for hunting.

SEXUAL ASSAULT PREVENTION AND RESPONSE

University Policy Regarding Sexual Misconduct and Sexual Harassment

Any form of sexual coercion, harassment, abuse or violence is contrary to the values and policies of the University of Mary. The University’s sexual harassment and sexual misconduct policies may be found in their entirety in the Student Handbook distributed at orientation and in employee handbooks. Additional handbooks are also available at the Fargo Center office.
Prevention of Sexual Assault

As part of the orientation for students and employees, the University of Mary Fargo Center provides information to prevent sexual assault, provided by the Rape and Abuse Crisis Center as well as information about other community resources.

What to Do if You Are Sexually Assaulted

If you are sexually assaulted, your first priority should be to get to a place of safety. Your next step should be to seek immediate medical attention at the nearest emergency room. Time is a critical factor in getting medical treatment because it can protect you from sexually transmitted diseases, it can preserve evidence should you decide to press charges against the assailant(s) and it will provide you access to counseling and emotional support important for your recovery. Do not bathe, shower or douche before going to the emergency room. Doing so could destroy evidence. Even if you do not plan to press charges against your assailant, it is important to preserve the evidence because you may change your mind in the future. At the emergency room you will be examined for injuries and you will receive medical treatment to help you heal and to help prevent infection and disease.

5. If the individual who assaulted you is a student, employee or otherwise officially affiliated with the University, you will be advised of your right to pursue disciplinary action against the assailant. You may pursue disciplinary action on whether or not you choose to file a criminal complaint. If you choose to pursue disciplinary action, the University will proceed with an investigation with as much sensitivity and privacy as possible.

a. If the alleged assailant is a student, the procedures outlined in the Student Handbook under "Special Disciplinary procedure for Violations of the University of Mary Sexual Misconduct Policy or the University of Mary Discrimination and Harassment Policy" will be followed to investigate and adjudicate your complaint. Under the procedure, the vice president for student development will convene a special, three-person committee to conduct a confidential investigation of the complaint. The committee will be made up of the director of student life, a member of the teaching faculty and one additional member of the University committee who will be of the same gender as the person reporting the assault. The committee will request written statements from both the person who filed the complaint and the student who was accused and each will be asked to appear before the committee to answer questions. Both the person who was assaulted and the student accused as the assailant will be permitted to bring an advisor with them to their appearance before the committee. Witnesses who have relevant information will be asked to appear before the committee and may be asked to provide written statements. The committee will utilize any information that might be available from a criminal investigation being conducted by law enforcement officials. When the committee has completed its investigation, it will make its recommendations to the vice president for student development who will make a determination in the matter. The decision of the vice president may be appealed to the president. If the alleged assailant is determined to be responsible for sexual assault, he/she is subject to disciplinary sanctions including but not limited to: being prohibited from enrollment in the same class, participating in the same extra-curricular activities, or requirement to avoid being in the same proximity as the person assaulted; a requirement to complete a mandatory treatment program; and/or suspension or expulsion the University. Likewise both the accuser and the accused will be informed of the outcome of any appeal made to the president.

b. If the alleged assailant is an employee (faculty, staff or administrator) of the University, the procedures outlined in the University of Mary Sexual Misconduct Policy will be followed to investigate or adjudicate your complaint. Under the policy, the president will convene a 3-person committee to conduct a confidential investigation of the complaint. The committee will be made up of the director of human resources, the vice president for student development and a third person selected by the president who will be the same gender as the person reporting the assault. The committee will request written statements from both the person filing the complaint and the accused and each will be asked to appear before the committee to answer questions. Both the person who was assaulted and the accused will be permitted to bring an advisor with them to their appearance before the committee.
Witnesses who have relevant information will be asked to appear before the committee and may be asked to provide written statements. The committee will utilize any information that might be available from a criminal investigation being conducted by law enforcement officials. When the committee has completed its investigation, it will make its recommendations to the president who will make a determination in the matter. The decision of the president is final. HATE CRIMES

There were no hate crimes reported to university or law enforcement officials at any of the locations listed in this report for the calendar years of: 2011, 2012 or 2013.

A hate crime is one that manifests evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator’s bias. The categories of bias include race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity/national origin or disability. The Clery Act requires colleges and universities to disclose all instances of Clery Act crimes listed in the crime statistics table above plus any other crime involving bodily injury that manifests evidence that the crime is a hate crime. The disclosure of each hate crime must include information about the geographic location where it occurred and the category of bias that was involved. Any type of hate crime is contrary to the University of Mary’s Benedictine value of respect which recognizes the God-given dignity of every human person and is therefore unacceptable at the university. Hate crimes at the University of Mary are considered a violation of the university’s Discrimination and Harassment Policy which is published in the Student Handbook and in all employee handbooks. Anyone who is the target of a hate offense or any other type of harassment because of a personal characteristic is encouraged to report it to both law enforcement officials and also as indicated in the university’s Discrimination and Harassment Policy. Any University of Mary student or a member of the faculty or staff who is found responsible for the commission of a hate crime or hate offense is subject to disciplinary action up to expulsion or dismissal.

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION/TIMELY WARNING ADVISORY

A timely warning is provided to members of the university in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Act, 20 U.S.C. § 1092 (f). The timely warning is a means of heightening safety awareness and to provide students, faculty and staff with a timely notification of crimes that are considered a serious or continuing threat to the campus community.

The University of Mary Critical Response Team is responsible to keep the university community informed of any emergency situation. Members of the response team are: the director of CADE, the on-site director/coordinator for each location and the facility manager for CADE.

Depending on the nature of the situation, the Team will utilize any or all of the following methods to issue emergency notices and/or security advisories to keep the University of Mary informed of important safety and security information as it becomes available: The Response Team will confirm there is an emergency and determine which segments of the campus community must be warned. The Response Team determines the appropriate content of the warning and sends the notification. Notice will be sent without delay, unless sending such a message will, in the professional judgment of the responsible campus authorities, compromise the effort to deal with the emergency or rescue a victim. The Response Team will notify the larger community of the emergency notification through the media spokesperson, or designee.
University of Mary Text Message Notification System: Individuals must register their cell phone number with the notification system. Instructions for registering your cell phone are issued through e-mail notification and on the university website.

E-mail: All official notices and security advisories are a timely warning.

RECOMMENDED SAFETY AND SECURITY PRACTICES FOR MEMBERS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF MARY COMMUNITY

FIRE SAFETY

1. Fire Prevention

   a. Do not burn candles or any device that has an open flame in at the Fargo Center or its sites without prior approval from the Fargo Center Sites Coordinator.

   b. Maintain clear and unobstructed access to doors from both inside and out at all times. Arrange classrooms and offices with fire safety in mind.

   c. Do not overload electrical outlets.

   d. Do not use broken, frayed or cracked electrical cords. Do not suspend lamps or lights by their own cords.

   e. Do not store any flammable materials in the building.

   f. Know every exit from the building. Know the location of fire extinguishers and how to operate them.

   g. Building evacuation is mandatory for all fire alarms, even if you do not believe there is a fire.

   h. It is a felony to activate a fire alarm as a prank. The University of Mary will report false alarms to law enforcement authorities and cooperate with investigations of false alarm incidents.

2. Steps to follow if you are aware of a fire

   a. Notify others in the building, exit the building as quickly as possible and call 911. Do not attempt to extinguish the fire yourself.

   b. Calmly assist others to evacuate the building by following exit signs.

   c. Make certain to determine if there are any disabled individuals in the building who may need assistance to evacuate the building.
d. Remain outside the building at a safe distance.

e. Meet police or fire officials upon their arrival and direct them to the location of the fire.

3. Steps to follow if you are caught in a fire

a. Remain calm, DO NOT panic.

b. Before opening a door, feel it with the back of your hand. If it is hot do not open the door. Instead follow another exit route. If you are trapped in a room, seal the cracks around the door with towels, linens or clothes (soaked in water if possible). Open your window for air and hang objects out the window to attract attention. Shout for help. If smoke is filling the area you are in, keep low to the floor. Take short breaths to avoid inhaling smoke. Place a wet towel over your nose and mouth. Keep your head six to eight inches off the floor.

c. If the door is not hot, brace yourself and open it slowly. If hot air or fire rushes in, close the door and refer to part b.

d. If you can leave, close all the doors behind you and proceed to the nearest safe exit. Leave the building and stand clear of the fire.

Personal Safety Practices

The safety of each individual member of the University of Mary is the paramount concern of the University. Each individual is advised to practice the following personal safety measures:

Personal safety recommendations regarding vehicles and parking lots

- When approaching your vehicle carry your keys so you can enter quickly. Always check around and under your vehicle as well as the rear seat for intruders when entering your automobile.
- Lock your doors and keep windows rolled up whenever possible.
- Drive on well-traveled and well-lit streets.
- Never hitchhike and never pick up hitchhikers.
- If someone tries to enter your stopped vehicle, sound the horn and drive away.
- If your vehicle breaks down, raise the hood and wait in your locked car for help.
- Be aware that an accident may be staged to provide the other driver with an opportunity to commit a criminal act.
- Leave enough room between your car and the one ahead so you can drive around if necessary.
- Avoid returning to university property alone after dark where you would be forced to walk alone from your vehicle into a building. If you must, invest in a cell phone and arrange for friends to meet your vehicle and walk with you. Park in a well lighted location close to a building entrance. Do not get out of your vehicle if you see anything suspicious.

Personal safety while socializing

- Do not place yourself in a situation where you are alone with people you do not know well. Do not accept an invitation to go alone to the residence, apartment, or room of someone you do not know well. Instead arrange to meet in a public place where there are other people or arrange to be accompanied by friends.

- Do not accept a beverage from someone you do not know and trust. Beverages can be “spiked” with alcohol and alcoholic beverages can contain more alcohol than you are used to consuming. Alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages can be laced with drugs that are tasteless and odorless (e.g. “the date rape drug”).

- Do not engage in binge drinking of alcoholic beverages. Binge drinking is defined as five or more drinks at a setting for adult males and four or more drinks at a setting for adult women. Binge drinking is associated with serious safety and health risks and statistics show that college populations are especially vulnerable to these risks. Individuals who engage in binge drinking are at risk for alcohol poisoning, a potentially fatal condition that can also cause brain and central nervous system damage. Statistics show that as many as one in four college women will be the victims of sexual assault before graduation and a large number of sexual assaults are associated with binge drinking. Persons who engage in binge drinking are also at substantially increased risk for injury or death from motor vehicle accidents, academic failure, depression, alcoholism and substance abuse, unwanted pregnancy, and sexually transmitted diseases.

- No one deserves to be abused. If you are in a relationship where your partner is emotionally or physically abusive you are in danger, get help. Contact Counseling Services, the Student Health Clinic, or the Adult Abuse Resource Center. If you have abused someone or fear you may be abusive (even if you have not been physically violent), help is available for you. Please get help before you abuse or hurt someone again.

- Be cautious about whom you date. Do not go out on a date alone with someone until you know him or her well. Do not continue to see someone who pressures you to do things you do not want to do. Do not continue to see someone who does not respect your wishes, your limits or who tries to control you. Do not continue to see someone who expresses anger inappropriately, is impulsive or disrespectful to you or other people. Take the time to get to know the character of those individuals you date. Check with mutual friends about the character of those who want to get to know you. You deserve friends of good character. Make it a point to insist upon it.

Help Us To Protect You and Your Property By Reporting Suspicious Activity

The University depends upon all members of the community to assist with campus safety efforts. If you see any suspicious activity or people on or near University facilities, Off-Site Campus’s or at University sponsored events immediately report what you have seen. Call the Local Law Enforcement Agency. Do not assume that what you see is an innocent activity or that another individual has already called security. Do not worry about being overly cautious. Instead, choose to err on the side of safety by calling security or University officials.

1) Suspicious behavior to report. Suspicious behavior that you should report includes any of the following: a) a person loitering at unusual hours and locations; b) a person running, especially if something of value is being carried; c) a person or persons carrying property or equipment that does not belong to them out of a building or residence; d) a person or persons going from room to room or apartment to apartment trying doorknobs; e) a person or persons entering or leaving a room or apartment without the occupant being home; f) persons not belonging to the University of Mary community. (Do not assume the person is a visitor or University staff member that you have not seen before); g) a person or persons exhibiting unusual behaviors that might suggest drug or alcohol use, or some other need for medical or psychiatric assistance.

2) Other suspicious circumstances to report. Other unusual circumstances to report include: a) broken or damaged doors or windows; b) doors or windows that are open or unlocked after hours; c) unusual noises – anything suggestive of foul play, danger or illegal activity; d) anyone who appears to be stalking another person, abusing another person or holding or controlling them against their will; d) people sitting in parked vehicles for an extended period of time; e) vehicles driving slowly in a parking lot at night.

What To Do If You Are The Victim of a Crime

1) Your first priority should always be your own survival and that of others who may be in danger. Survival may require that you scream for help, that you fight back or it may require that you cooperate with the perpetrator. Whatever you do, your first goal should be to survive and to get to a place of safety.

2) Make certain the perpetrator is gone before entering a crime scene. If you return to your room or apartment and notice that an intruder has been present get out immediately. Go to a safe place and call authorities to assist you.

3) Preserve the crime scene. Do not disturb or destroy evidence or allow others to do so until authorities have had an opportunity to investigate the scene.

4) If you have been physically attacked or sexually assaulted do not wash or bathe until you have been examined by a health care professional. Even if you do not wish to press charges at the time of the attack, DNA evidence can be taken and preserved so it is available in the event you wish to file charges at a later date.

5) If you are a victim of a crime, your immediate recall is often the best. Write down as much information as you can immediately after a crime. If you see the perpetrator of a crime try to notice as many details about him or her as you can including:

   - Gender
   - Approximate Age
   - Height
   - Weight/build
   - Dress/clothing
   - Facial hair
   - Glasses
   - Distinguishing marks, including scars
   - Distinguishing walk
   - Voice
   - Description of face including eye color, hair color, hairstyle (short, curly, etc.), jaw, nose

6) Make a report to proper authorities immediately or as soon as possible after a crime occurs.
