March for Life 2019

On January 16th, the University of Mary took four motor coach buses across the United States on a 30-hour bus ride to Washington, DC to participate in the world’s largest pro-life event, March for Life on January 18th. The March for Life has been held annually for 46 years in Washington DC and University of Mary students have been a part of this March for the past decade.

This year, the University of Mary had 188 students attend the event, with 14 of those students being TRIO members. The TRIO members that were in attendance are John Cornwell, James Gilbert, Mary Hobbs, Anna Hobbs, Reegin Kehn, Anastasia Koralewski, Mae Litschauer, Veronica Miller, April Mogard, Emma Olson, Julianna Ricciardi, Gabriel Rivas, Stephen Tan, and Michael Waddell.

The bus rides were filled with homework, studying, practicing chants and cheers, and singing songs.

Meet our Graduate Assistant and Peer Mentor!

Gabby Moffitt will be working with TRIO as a Graduate Assistant until TRIO advisor Maureen Moriarty returns at the end of March. Gabby is from Monticello, Minnesota and graduated with an BA in Psychology with a Minor in Spanish from the University of Northern Iowa. Gabby is currently a graduate student in the Masters of Counseling program with a concentration in School and Mental Health Counseling. Gabby also coaches the Bismarck Gymnastics Academy show teams.

Dora Cantu will be working with TRIO as a Peer Mentor for the remainder of the spring 2019 semester. Dora is from Modesto, California and is a Communications major who will be graduating this year. Dora also works with the wrestling program and during the summer she will be interning for the Bismarck Larks.
TRIO students rock! We are proud to announce the many TRIO students who made the Dean’s List for the fall 2018 semester. To be eligible for the Dean’s list, a student must have a 3.5 term GPA. Here is the list of students who received this prestigious honor.

Sarina Aamold, Mabel Addo, David Alimo, Mollie Anderson, Lucia Bolibruch, Maria Bolibruch, Angela Carter, Hector Chavez, John Cornwell, Christine David, Brittany Davis, Michael Dettloff, Jane Dukart, Lynn Duong, Marquell Evans, Emilee Fergel, Izabella Fredericksen, Jacob Gartner, James Gilbert, Elizabeth Hands, Erin Heidrich, Abby Hill, Amy Howard, Hunter Huizenga, Reegin Kehn, Allison Kipp, Nicole Koepl, Anastasia Koralewski, Lauren Kraft, Theresa Liebsch, Anna Litschauer, Mae Listschauer, Hannah Meier, Connie Meziere, Nicole Miller, Andrea Morren, Nicholas Mortenson, Ryan Naki-Poomaihealani, Maisie Patzner, Genevieve Ricciardi, Devan Rohrich, Kiersten Salazar, Kayla Schneider, Kyra Schulz, Michal Sequeira, Tanesha Struebing, Stephen Tan, Mercedes Trujillo-Hanson, Rachell Vargas Comme, Mary Vincent, Michael Waddell, Deserae Wanner, Brandon Welch, Samantha Wiechman, Jaylan White, Mariah Woodring.

Congratulations! Keep up the great work!

Dean’s List Honors for Fall 2018 Semester

We are excited to announce TRIO students have reached their goal of 1,000 TRIO service hours! As of January 9th, TRIO is at 1,005 service hours! We’re still tracking service hours through Feb. 13. Let your advisor know if you have hours.

Celebrate this amazing accomplishment at the Valentine’s Day event, “Love as a Service”

ATTENTION!
The Book and Merit Scholarships and Supplemental Grant awards will be announced soon. Please watch your email for more information.

Fall 2018 Graduates:
Congratulations to the 2018 Fall SSS/TRIO December Graduates!

Angela Carter
Major: University Studies

Allison Dion
Majors: Early Childhood Education, Special Education, and Elementary Education

Ryan Naki-Poomaihealani
Major: Business Administration
Minor: Sport and Leisure Management

Michelle Pittman
Major: University Studies
Minor: Catholic Studies

Elizabeth Turner
Major: Criminal Justice

Rachell Vargas-Comme
Major: Psychology
Minor: Business Administration
The Nutcracker:
A group of TRIO students joined together on campus to have hot cocoa before they traveled into Bismarck for The Nutcracker on December 7th.

Salvation Army Bell Ringing
On December 12th, TRIO students could be found serving the community during the holiday season. TRIO students were found around the Kirkwood Mall bell ringing for the Salvation Army.

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS:

Killin’ It: THE and PHI Courses:
Wed., Jan. 30th - 2:30pm-3:00pm & Thurs., Jan. 31st - 12:00pm-12:30pm
LVUC Student Org. Conference Room
Master the concepts to understanding theology and philosophy courses with Dr. Collins.

Resumania:
 Tues., Feb. 5th - 9:00am-11:30am
 GTSB Foyer
 Provided by Career Services, bring your personal resume for edits from local employers.

Valentine’s Day “Love as a Service”:
Thurs., Feb. 14th - 3:00pm-4:00pm
HSLC Great Room
Celebrate the TRIO Service Project with honored guest speaker: Sr. Thomas.

Killin’ It: Writing:
Tues., Feb. 26th - 2:00pm
Wed., Feb. 27th - 9:00am
LVUC Student Org. Conference Room
Learn how to win at writing. Come learn tips and strategies to better your writing skills with professors Sarah Clark and Valerie Kolbinger.
TRIO Student Phillip Springsteen was named NSIC Wrestler of the Week for his performance at the Midwest Classic. Phillip dominated the competition going 5-0, winning the first three by pin, and taking first place in his class. Springsteen also made his first appearance of the season in the national rankings coming in at 8th.

Head football Coach Craig Bagnell, Athletic Director Dale Lennon, and 30 members of the football team joined members of the Civil Air Patrol to help clean holiday wreaths from the headstones at the North Dakota Veterans Cemetery south of Mandan.

TRIO Student Jaylan White scored the winning points of the basketball game on January 11th, making the score 100-98 in the third overtime vs. the University of Minnesota Duluth Bulldogs. White made all of his free throw attempts in the overtime, scoring 12 of his team high 25 points.