Construction Management Faculty Position

The University of Mary is seeking qualified candidates for a fulltime faculty position in the School of Arts and Sciences. This position is a 9-month full-time faculty rank position that includes both teaching and program director responsibilities in the construction management program. This position is directly responsible to the Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences and begins in the fall of 2018. The School of Arts and Sciences offers undergraduate programs in the liberal arts, including Engineering and Construction Management. The construction management program is a new program and will be offered on the main campus.

The University of Mary overlooks the beautiful Missouri river and is located in Bismarck, North Dakota, a community of approximately 80,000 people, with wonderful family and parish life, friendly neighborhoods, enjoyable recreational and cultural facilities, a low crime rate, clean air, and excellent schools. The University of Mary, with an enrollment of over 3000 students, is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association. The University of Mary, a center of learning in the Benedictine tradition, has a three-fold mission: teaching, scholarly study including research, and service. It is the responsibility of all faculty members to promote the Christian, Catholic, and Benedictine mission of the University of Mary and to implement the principles of Ex Corde Ecclesiae.

Required Qualifications Include:

- Earned Master's degree in construction management or related discipline from an accredited program required; Ph.D. preferred
- Professional experience in construction management and business preferred
- Prior teaching experience at the college level and experience with curriculum development preferred
- Ability to guide and mentor students in engineering and construction management
- A willingness to support and advance the Christian, Catholic, Benedictine mission of the University of Mary
- Supporting the ongoing implementation of Ex Corde Ecclesiae, the apostolic constitution on Catholic colleges and universities
- Building a culture of ready and earnest hospitality in the Office of Academic Affairs and throughout the university in accord with Saint Benedict’s admonition that all be received as Christ

Required Responsibilities Include:

- Developing courses and curriculum for Construction Management Degree
- Teaching undergraduate courses in the fields of construction management and civil engineering
- Interacts positively and effectively with faculty, staff, and students to improve program operating practices and outcomes
- Assumes a leadership role in setting goals for academic achievement, student recruitment, and student retention
- Leads and supervises ongoing program improvements based on accreditation standards, program objectives, and university competencies
Qualified applicants should submit (1) a cover letter that addresses the candidate’s commitment to supporting the mission of the University of Mary, (2) resume/curriculum vitae, (3) teaching portfolio (if available), (4) official or unofficial transcripts from all colleges and universities attended, and (5) at least three references with contact information to: employment@umary.edu or mail to: University of Mary, Attn: Human Resources, 7500 University Drive, Bismarck, ND 58504. Emailed applications preferred.

Applications will be accepted until January 14, 2018 or until the position is filled.

Equal Opportunity Employer