

Mary College at ASU

COURSE GUIDE SPRING 2022

CTH 234 Benedict Yesterday and Today (3 credits)
Humanities (HU); Historical Awareness (H); REL elective

T, Th 4:15pm-5:45pm
Prof. Lefor

Examine the influence of St. Benedict and Benedictine monasticism on the Church, history, and human thought and culture.

CTH 310 Catholicism and America (3 credits)
Humanities (HU); Cultural Diversity (C); REL elective

M, W 10:15am-11:45am
Dr. Fraher

Explore the Catholic historical experience in America from colonization to the present, considering the extent to which Catholicism is compatible with American political and social values.

CTH 340 Catholic Literary Tradition (3 credits)
elective

M, W 4:30pm-6:00pm
Dr. Thurow

Investigate the implications of the Incarnation on literature by entering into the Catholic literary tradition. Topics will vary, potentially including focus on a particular author, genre, or theme.

CTH 250 Catholic Studies Tutorial 2 (1 credit)
elective

T 3:00pm-4:00pm
Mr. Hofer

Explore the integration of faith and life and consider how this integration is manifest in culture.

CTH 350 Catholic Studies Tutorial 3 (1 credit)
elective

M 1:00pm-2:00pm
Mr. Hofer

Investigate how the ideas of vocation and leadership are understood in the Catholic tradition.

