Our team members have been enriching the lives of older adults and their families since 1980, when Werner G. Nistler, Jr founded the company, and we hire people who share the same core values that Touchmark was built upon – hospitality, compassion, excellence, teamwork, and integrity. Are you looking for a job, or are you looking for a place where you can build relationships, explore your underused talents, and make a difference every day? At Touchmark, the ladies and gentlemen who serve in our communities don’t just come to a job, they come to be part of something bigger – a mission focused on enriching people’s lives. In the process of doing that, they grow, have fun, and develop lifelong skills. The culture in our communities is rich with people who are friends, allies, and givers – both toward their co-workers and toward residents and their family members. People who value laughter and shared memories, and who celebrate humanity and aging with dignity. People who are compassionate and encouraging, and who find satisfaction in providing genuine hospitality. If making others feel valued and special is what motivates you, apply now or come see us about joining our team.
